The following terms and conditions apply to all tours. These Terms and Conditions affect your legal rights and are legally binding.

RESERVATIONS

To confirm your booking please complete and sign the 'Tour Booking Form', which acknowledges that you have read, accepted and understood this 'Terms and Conditions' sheet. A 25% deposit of the full booking amount is to be paid by cheque, direct debit or credit card and this deposit is non-refundable. Bookings are held for a maximum of 7 days awaiting deposit. The deposit then secures your booking. The balance is due a minimum of 90 days prior to departure. We recommend that clients book their flights to/from Broome/Kununurra plus any accommodation required, at the same time they commit to tour with us. All prices quoted are in Australian dollars.

CANCELLATION

Cancellation within 90 days prior to departure or if passengers fail to arrive – the total value prepaid for the reservation is forfeited. The non-refundable/cancellation fees can be claimed from your travel insurance policy under the terms of that policy for certain conditions. We will also retain a $200.00 admin fee per booking per travel component.

TRAVEL AND MEDICAL INSURANCE

Kimberley Cruise Centre strongly recommends passengers arrange suitable cancellation insurance at time of booking. This acts as protection from any circumstance which may force you to cancel or leave an expedition whilst it is in progress. Kimberley Cruise Centre accepts no responsibility for the actions of any carrier that results in the purchaser not meeting a booking condition or deadline.

INTERNATIONAL TOURS

Passengers travelling on international tours must have in their possession a passport valid at least 6 months beyond the return cruise date. It is your responsibility also, to check with the appropriate consulate well in advance of departure, regarding any tourist visas which may be required to enter each country. It is also your responsibility to check whether any re-entry visa is required to re-enter Australia on the return of your cruise (this applies to non-Australian passports).

ACCOMMODATION SHARE POLICY

Accommodation prices are based on twin share occupancy. Sole occupancy can be requested on the basis of normal fare plus a single supplement. Alternatively, if travelling alone you may need to share accommodation with same sex room mate, and the single supplement can be waived.

TOUR CHANGES, DELAYS OR CANCELLATIONS

If the carrier cancels the Tour for operational reasons, the carrier may refund the fare paid and if the departure of a Tour is delayed or if the Tour itinerary is shortened for any other reason, the carrier may refund part of the fare paid on a pro rata basis to allow for the time lost. The carrier of this tour will endeavour to follow the tour itinerary as described in the brochure and the passenger accepts that the carrier has the right to change the itinerary, the tour vessel or cancel the tour as a result of some Unexpected Event or prevailing inclement weather conditions and the passenger accepts that the passenger may not be entitled to any compensation or refund of the fare paid should this occur.

LIABILITY CONDITIONS

Kimberley Cruise Centre provides adventure expeditions and cruises and as such, the passengers may face dangers and discomfort.

Should this happen, each passenger should be prepared for and accept the risks involved with a trip of this nature. While all due care is taken by the carrier to avoid unnecessary risks it is the passenger's ultimate responsibility for damages or loss of personal property or any illness, death or injury. The carrier does not accept liability for losses, costs or expenses suffered as a delay in delivery of services. The carrier does not accept liability for any breach of contract resulting from or caused by force nature, natural disaster, act of God or unforeseen circumstances.

MEDICAL & RISKS

We strongly advise that you arrange comprehensive travel, cancellation and medical insurance, at the time of booking. Passengers with any medical conditions should make them aware to the company at least seven days prior to departure or at the time of booking. Medical ailments or accidents during the trip should be reported to the Captain immediately. Emergency evacuation is available for severe medical reasons, at the customer's expense and claimable by many travel insurance companies as long as it is not a pre-existing medical condition (unless the insurance company has pre-approved such).

PASSENGER HEALTH AND RESPONSIBILITY

The passenger admits a full understanding of the nature and character of the vessel and the scope of the activities contemplated by the passenger during the Tour (including those relating to off-vessel activities such as off road excursions) and assures and undertakes to the carrier:-

- That they are in good health and will be able to undertake the Tour and the contemplated activities;
- That they will effect travel insurance sufficient to cover and limitation of liability against the Operator;
- That they accept the risk that they may suffer from travel sickness;
- That they have disclosed any physical or mental disability requiring special attention or treatment at the time when the reservation for the Tour was made;
- That the passenger accepts that a medical certificate certifying fitness for travel may be required at the Carrier's request, and if any passenger has had surgery less than three months prior to touring, that passenger must submit a letter from a qualified physician stating that he or she is fit to travel. The Carrier reserves the right to deny passage if a passenger requires care and attention which the carrier cannot adequately provide and this decision may be made by the Carrier in its sole discretion;
- Any charges incurred by passengers for medical reasons including but not limited to physicians, surgeons, hospitals, off vessel accommodation, medication, diagnostic facilities, air ambulance evacuation or ground ambulance shall be the sole responsibility of the passenger;
- For the safety and comfort of all passengers, smoking is not permitted in the vessel except on open deck spaces;
- And the passenger agrees to indemnify the Carrier from and against all claims, costs, charges and fines or penalties arising as a result of any claim made against the carrier in this respect.

LIMITATION OF CARRIER'S LIABILITY

The liability of the carrier to the passenger is limited with respect to both personal injury and damage to loss of property to the full extent permitted by law and in terms of these Tour booking conditions. The Carrier accepts no responsibility of liability to the passenger for loss, death, or delay of, or injury to any passenger. These tour booking conditions remain in effect for all periods when the Carrier is under any responsibility to the passenger or the passenger's property.

PASSENGER BAGGAGE

All baggage brought on board the coach by a passenger remains in the possession and control of the passenger during the tour and must be stored and kept in the area allocated to the passenger. Clients will be given advice on what to bring, and the weight restrictions of luggage. All baggage should be clearly labelled with the name of the passenger. No dangerous or flammable substance including any prohibited drug or non-prescribed drug. The Carrier is not responsible for baggage, money, jewellery, documents and any other valuables which passengers keep on their person, in their cabins or in their baggage. The Carrier does not accept responsibility for any loss, damage or delay to a passenger's baggage, personal effects or other property arising from or caused by an unexpected event. The Carrier strongly recommends that passengers obtain adequate insurance to cover any loss or damage in this respect.

EXPEDITION ACTIVITIES

The Kimberley Cruise Centre and your chosen tour coach will not be liable to passengers for any injury or damage, which occur during recreational activities. This includes those activities both on and off the main coach.
